Volunteer to become a Family To Family Community Representative!

Community Representatives play a key role in the Family Case Review process of Family To Family, a children's foster care reform initiative. Community Representatives will participate in a case review along with a child's birth parents and support person, foster parents and Family Independence Agency staff to develop a plan for a child(ren) who may be removed from their homes because of abuse and/or neglect.

Community Representatives:

- Do not need a child welfare background (we will provide child welfare training) ●
- Are aware of resources within and outside the targeted community ●
- Are aggressive in seeking resources ●
- Have great communication skills ●
- Should reside in and/or provide services to the targeted community ●
- Represent our community partners ●
- Know the community ●
